PRESIDENT JULIE'S REPORT Hi There Jazz Friends,

Restrictions are slowly being lifted though VERY disappointing that dancing was not allowed until THE DAY AFTER OUR XMAS GIG! the trial of 2 shows is working well - FEBRUARY/MARCH/APRIL Bookings are NOW OPEN!

In spite of WILD weather and some local flooding, our Xmas show was a huge success – while we had a few cancelations these were mostly taken up by late bookings from visitors who couldn't go to the beach and with no fishermen out, plenty of parking spaces. It was really special to see so many go to so much trouble to DRESS TO IMPRESS in Gatsby outfits making it very hard for judges to choose best dressed man & lady at each show.

We are delighted with the response to bookings – and subject to each band's agreement we will continue with 2 shows until 'allowed' numbers are back to 'normal', EXCEPT MAY- When booking please advise your preference of show time and if booking on line please check availability of places with Richard. If a regular DO NOT ASSUME!

You are reminded that Annual MEMBERSHIP FEES fell due 31 December $20 still, for renewals by 28 February, PLEASE SUPPORT US! Our web site has been updated again to hopefully be more interesting and informative and user friendly. When it asks for a password you should just add a personal pass word and that will enable you to track your bookings/membership activity and will then remain in the system.

Looking forward to sharing Jazz VERY SOON Julie

RICHARD WROTE! (Front of House, Bookings & Co-Founder)

Well, we made it through 2020 with great support and we now look forward to 2021 being a better year for us all.

What a start with full houses for Galapagos Duck, and a great program scheduled ahead.

Early booking and payment is essential to secure your spot, so do not leave it too late to avoid disappointment and don't assume that because 'you always come' you are booked!

Growing numbers in membership are very pleasing to see, this is the result of good promotion, music and venue. Yours in Jazz Richard

The latest COVID19 Rule allows us an extra 40 - ie: attendance limit is 140 at the venue PLUS the band and sound – Due to heavy demand, we now hold TWO SHOWS each month until COVID rules change– times have been changed with the second show finishing at 6.30 pm
To confirm a booking you will need to pre-pay by card or on line – NEW RULES : Power Boat Club will now require you to swipe Drivers' Licence or PB Club card, or scan phone at RECEPTION ENTRY! Then you will still be marked off at Jazz door to receive your Entry ticket & Table number

The Bistro will open at 11.30 am – 3pm - staff will still deliver meals up to your table or you may dine downstairs but please sign in first to avoid delays – BISTRO re-opens 5pm if wishing to stay on for dinner

Jazz Club Doors WILL OPEN AT 11.15 am (not before) & 3.15pm FOR 4PM show

BRIAN FANE'S REVIEWS -

THE CAXTON STREET JAZZ BAND:

The Caloundra Power Boat Club on Sunday 13th December was again the host venue for two sessions of great music from the celebrated Caxton Street Jazz Band. Jazz Classics from the 20's, swing music from the 30's Ellington, Armstrong, Acker Bilk, are all performed by these talented musicians with style and enthusiasm. Wonderful solos from each musician and who can forget Bernie's vocals and keyboard talent. Both sessions were full to the allowed capacity and the audience responded with resounding applause. The Sunshine Coast Jazz Club committee is to be thanked for continuing to present our talented Australian musicians to appreciative supporters. Brian Fane SCJC life Member

GALAPAGOS DUCK

GALAPAGOS DUCK flew in on Sunday 17th January to play music, not to quack. The new DUCK personnel [groups do change] have not lost the musicianship that we want to hear. From the opening Basie classic they played great music. Rodney on drums sang a crowd pleasing ' Killer Jo'.

John Conley's original CUBAN No 1 showed Rodney's dexterity on the drums then followed the beautiful rendition of Cindy Lauper's "Time After Time" The first set ended with the hand clapping "Revelation" New tenor sax, member Adam Thomas blew the Sonny Rollins "St, Thomas" off the charts with again some fierce drumming from Rod. What an outstanding player. The irrepressible Mal Wood as always played his heart out and gave us the fun that helps music be enjoyed. John on bass both acoustic and electric just amazes every time he plays. Dave Spicer not only a dynamic keyboard player but sang a great blues song - "I Don't Worry about Anything" [a great thought in today's world!!]. His own composition. The DUCK, as always gave their all, in musicianship and entertainment. What more can you ask when the audience gave a standing ovation in appreciation. GALAPAGOS DUCK a musical institution!

Ray Hoeschler – Vice President & Bursary Committee

Greetings Jazz Lovers,

The Sunshine Coast Jazz Club (SCJC) Youth Bursary final at the Caloundra Power Boat club will be held on Saturday the 28th of August 2021. Next month, reminder letters and flyers will be sent to school Principals. Please refer to the SCJC Website for all details and instructions.

The concept of ‘Youth N Jazz’ is not a new concept and the following may interest you as Jazz lovers. Youth protest movements did exist in Nazi Germany. The Nazi propagandists of the time would have had the world believe that the youth population of Nazi Germany was fully behind Hitler. It is true that many did join the Hitler Youth movement but in 1936 membership was made compulsory and all other youth movements were banned so there was no alternative. However, there were some youths who were ideologically against the regime and who were brave enough to make a stand. In 1937 one such protest movement was started – the Edelweiss Pirates. The movement started in the Rhineland and then spread out. Whereas the Nazi Party required Hitler Youth members to wear a uniform that was semi-military, Edelweiss members wore more bohemian clothing, knowing that it would anger the powers-that-be. They also sang songs and played Jazz and Blues that the Nazis had banned. The Edelweiss Pirates were mainly seen as coming from working class backgrounds, youths from more upper-class backgrounds formed ‘swing groups’, they too, engaged in what would have been perceived as non-Germanic activities. However, the regime’s stance changed during World War Two where it required explicit obedience to the state. This change from irritant to threat is best seen in a series of letters found after the war had ended. In a letter from Heinrich Himmler to Reinhard Heydrich (January 1942) the head of the SS wrote that a half-measured approach to the ‘swing groups’ was unacceptable and that members of any such groups had to be dealt with accordingly.

Himmler told Heydrich that for members of the ‘swing groups’ labour and work camps were inappropriate. They had to be sent to concentration camps for between “2 to 3 years”. Himmler did not differentiate between male youths and “worthless girls”. “There the youth should first be given thrashings and then put through the severest drill and set to work. It must be made clear that they will never be allowed to go back to their studies. We must investigate how much encouragement they have had from their parents. If they have encouraged them, then they should also be put into a concentration camp and (have) their property confiscated.” (‘Hitler’s Germany’ by Jane Jenkins). Fortunately, Jazz is still strong and popular in Germany.

I think I would have been a passionate Edelweiss Pirate.

Keep safe and keep on Bopping, Ray
