PRESIDENT JULIE'S REPORT

Have you checked out our fabulous new WEB SITE yet? Do yourself a favor and google up sunshinecoastjazzclub.net.au - this is SEPARATE to the FACEBOOK page with lots more information - you will love that you can click onto the tiny photos (under main photo) in 'COMING EVENTS', and get a taste of the music you are in store for from that particular band - also the 'compilation videos' on our Home page that our talented member Wal Straede has spent hours putting together for your enjoyment. THEN have a look at the new BURSARY PAGE - your club is offering a wonderful opportunity to emerging jazz talent in years 11 and 12 (now increased to include Years 9 & 10) - if you know someone make sure they are aware and apply! A SPECIAL 'FAMILY DAY' will be held at the Power Boat Club on SATURDAY 23 NOVEMBER when applicants will perform for respected judges from Brisbane and winner/s will be chosen to win fabulous cash prizes to assist them with studies or purchase of instruments. Do set the time aside to come along and support them - after all - OUR YOUTH ARE OUR FUTURE! "AND THERE'S MORE"!!! We have also introduced a further page for on-line Bookings - see the BOOKINGS PAGE! You can still call Richard for bookings where he has credit card facility/pay at the door/ or book and pay on-line! With the fabulous shows we are bringing to you, you can make sure you reserve your favorite table and one you won't want to miss will be the fabulous PIPPA WILSON and JAZZ NOTES SHOW BAND - it will be a "SELL OUT" and already NEARING THAT! Stepping back a little, we were delighted to have back the Clarence Jazz Men in August who gave us a fabulous afternoon - and more - of entertainment - right down to Clarence on drums and his Louie Armstrong gravel voice renditions - too many special moments to mention - I will leave that to Brian in his reviews September proved to be a fun day out with Trombone Kellie, Scrubby Pete and the Muddy Roaders all the way from "South of the Border" as were the Clarence Jazz Men. Kellie and her band never cease to brighten the day and the crowd just loved them. (Yes! they will be back next year!) Now we can't wait for October - Pippa Wilson and the jazz Notes Show Band - how exciting can it get? If you haven't made your booking, do it NOW! or you'll regret it!

Warmest wishes - Julie

RICHARD WROTE! (Front of House, Bookings & Co-Founder) Good to see the great numbers continuing - August and September bands were fantastic but better still to come, so don't forget to book and prepay early, as this helps greatly with our planning. It also reduces entry delays on the day and gives you a better chance of your favorite table. Don't forget to check out our fabulous new web site <http://sunshinecoastjazzclub.net.au> - where you can also make your bookings thanks to the new "Bookings" page. A big thanks to those who have come forward and offered assistance as volunteers.
Yours in JAZZ Richard

BRIAN FANE'S REVIEWS THE CLARENCE JAZZMEN -18TH August 2019

From Buddy Bolden to Louis Armstrong to The Duke of Ellington, The Clarence Jazzmen gave the Sunshine Coast Club audience the music we know and love. The opening "Hello Dolly" with a Louis vocal led into Duke's "Satin Doll" followed by a raunchy "Comin' Home". We were really tappin' the tootsies. Warren's vocal of "What a Wonderful World" received a great round of applause. Pietro on clarinet finished the first set with inspired drumming from Warren and trombone from Dave with Juan Tizol's "Caravan" The next set "It Don't Mean a Thing" "Georgia" the Nat Adderley "Work Song" added to the enjoyment and our sound man Ben sat in on keyboards with "Let the Good Times Roll". By this time the floor was buzzing with the dancers. How could you not enjoy Dave's gutsy trombone and trumpet solos, Pierto's Clarinet and keyboard. The afternoon closed with the encore of Duke's "C Jam Blues". Well we didn't have any blues only that the afternoon was over. Clarence Jazzmen, come back - we love your music -. Thanks for a fun afternoon of music Brian Fane Sunshine Coast Jazz Club Life Member.

TROMBONE KELLIE & THE MUDDY ROADERS

Trombone Kellie & the Muddy Roaders never cease to amaze. From the opening "I Ain't Got You" to their finale, the music flows. Song after song [14 or more in the first set!] "Morning Train, Fats Waller's Ain't Misbehavin", Pete's rendition of "Bad case of Love, "Honeysuckle Rose, and the old Ella Fitzgerald number – Goody Goody – did she belt that out!! Jazz, Gospel, Blues and oh, those 'train songs' - vocals, solos from the musician virtuoso, kept the audience in anticipation - . Kellie is a wonderful gut-wrenching trombonist. Her solos rip right through you - "Sway" with Kellie and Derek, "All of Me", "Freight Train" – you felt that you could hear that train! And who could forget the great Gospel song "Fly Away" - she sings with a style that puts meaning into every word. Then, Derek, well, is there a more powerful trumpeter. Wow! those high register notes!! Ellington's "It Don't Mean a Thing" is always a treat. Great guitar and vocals from Peter who keeps the beat solid and steady. Toby had some great solo spots and we love Justin's old- time slap bass. As usual our exhibition dancers stole the show with some amazing steps. More strength to them!!

*The band had a ball and so did the audience, so much so that they received standing ovations and rewarded us with extra encores and overtime! Trombone Kellie & The Muddy Roaders!! Music to listen and enjoy, music to dance and enjoy. Thank you Kellie and boys – we can't wait to have you back! You and the Roaders lift our spirits.
