RED-SOX SAYS

May the music within you, grace your world

Sunday, 19 August, we are presenting for your enjoyment, David Bentley quintet – the list of his guest appearances is many & world- wide - we will be treated to New Orleans Jazz, Blues, Soul, Gospel (but not as we know it & we won't pass the plate around)

BIGGER THAN BEN HUR - 16 September - DEFINITELY A "DON'T MISS" when we bring you CLARENCE JAZZ MEN -6 piece with special guest from UK, Phil Morris. This band will be travelling up from Lismore- please be seated by 1.45pm – the door price is the same as usual as a "Thank You" for your continued support.

Saturday 21 July, Nambour Winter Jazz Fest was hosted by our SC Jazz Club member Robyn Brown for third year and this club has been a gold sponsor from day one. The Nambour RSL, as a gold sponsor, hosted the 'supper show' which was a sell out bar 2 seats. This festival will grow to a 'must' on your calendar over coming years – 'dips me lid and we dig the 'Brown Girl''

JULIE'S NOTE

Hi Jazz Lovers,

Well, what a treat of Jazz we have had for June and July, with 2 gigs in both months plus the Nambour Winter Jazz Festival and our participation in the Qld Cabaret Festival Wow!

We got underway with The Jazz Kings and Nicole Parker Brown, early June, followed by the Brazilian special "A View From Madeleine's Couch who were celebrating 20 years as one of Australia's best, and celebrate we did – Then 1 July the band that needs no introduction Caxton Street

Jazz Band graced the stage - well, a little short on there with trombone player Tom Nicolson making a grand exit after a fall before the show even got started – I am happy to report that Tom is progressing well and after surgery and a number of weeks at our beautiful Sunshine Coast Private Hospital he is now at St Vincents in Brisbane for rehab– He will be out of action for a couple of months, but is sure of a big welcome back at our Christmas party 2 December.

Next up was Jan Lennard and Di Clark, supported by the super showman Peter Uppman, plus the very talented and entertaining Jeff Lotze, Phil Jack & Shane Calderbank, with their tribute to Michael Jackson, Ray Charles & Sammy Davis Jnr – what a team!

To top it all off our club member - Robyn Brown- hosted the 2018 Nambour Winter Jazz Festival - the club was a proud sponsor for this growing event. Well done Robyn. Pat, Ted and I were there to 'scout' for some new talent for our 2019 calendar.

We continue to bring you top artists with David Bentley Quintet appearing in August and for the first time, David will be bringing a mixture of soul, blues and gospel so make sure you get your table booked early.

The variety just keeps coming so check out the Gig Guide to see what surprises we have in store.

Cheers Julie (President)

BRIAN FANE'S REPORT

On Sunday 17 June,, the room swayed to the music of "A View From Madeleine'd Couch" who took us to Brazil with Bossa Novas, Sambas, Salsas – original tunes and well known favorites

2 July, "Th Caxton Street Jazz Band" – have you heard of Calamity Jane the famous American sharp shooter? Well not to worry, "Caxton Street" now have Calamity Tom! Seriously, accidents do occur, as Tom Nicolson had an unfortunate fall and was taken away before he had a chance to demonstrate his skills – good reports have been welcomed. The group had the large audience responding as always. Bernice on keyboard sang several songs and a pleasant surprise guest – Andy Jenner, wonderful multi-instrumentalist, joined the group for the last 2 sets having the dancers swing around the floor and be entertained by brilliant classic jazz. We wish Tom a speedy recovery.

Later in the month, Jan Lennard and Di Clarke presented "Diamonds In the Sky" – their tribute to Michael Jackson, Sammy Davis Jnr, Ray Charles, Nat King Cole & Julie London -well remembered late greats and the high-flying gals had fabulous support from top 'musos' Shane Calderwood on keyboard, Phil – Bass, Ray (a last minute replacement who proved to be something special) drums, and Peter – vocals, trumpet & flugelhorn – really set the scene for top presentations. .

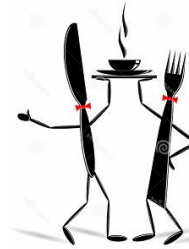

Till next time – Brian
