Dearest Sis (Carlyn), we will miss you – Rest in Peace –

Carlyn was not a sister-in-law, but a sister – hence, as so many of you know, a people person and a LADY – We will miss you Sis – "and all that Jazz"

Bill, Carlyn and myself – the three of us had so much in common – we agreed to disagree – Sis was a very astute business woman

VALE CARLYN - 20.3.1952 – 20.11.2018

Dance as if no one is watching – Girls just want to have fun!

JULIE'S REVIEW

Seasons' Greetings –wishing you a very Happy Christmas and Fabulous New Year – with lots of great Jazz coming your way. Just take a look at the Gig Guide and make sure you book your table NOW to avoid disappointment .

We are saying "Goodbye " to 2018 and a great year, with the ever popular Caxton Street who are following some top entertainment from Clarence Jazz Men

as well as sophisticated Ingrid James & Peter Uppman . now we can't wait to welcome the masters in 2019 GALAPAGOS DUCK – NO 'INTRO' NEEDED THERE!

Don't forget that our Club year ends 31 December, so annual Membership fees are due now & due to staff changes you will need to show membership cards at door. We really do appreciate your support in joining up as members – not just financial support to our coffers but your attendance throughout the year. A BIG THANK YOU – because of this continued support, we have been able to book some wonderful bands with lots of variety.

It is with a very heavy heart and much sadness, I report the passing of our much loved "Front of House" Manager, Carlyn, who left us so suddenly, doing what she loved. We miss her already.

Many thanks to our band of volunteers who do a great job – while they enjoy their day out, it would be great to be in a position to be able to roster them so that they could sit back every now and then, so please consider 'putting your hand up' .A special welcome to new Volunteer Sandy Roche & Glennis Hart (who has stepped in to take bookings) . My thanks too, to the Power Boat Club for their continued support, and this beautiful venue– especially Priscilla (Events) and Richard – our 'GO TO MAN" – always ready to help. My thanks too, for the work of Management Committee throughout the year – "YOU ARE THE BEST!"

Warmest wishes, Julie

BRIAN FANE'S REVIEW Happy 90th Birthday Brian (PR Media)

TROMBONE KELLIE & THE MUDDY ROADERS: At 2pm on Sunday 21st October The Caloundra Powerboat Club was just starting to swing and sway. Why? Because TROMBONE KELLIE & THE MUDDY ROADERS were starting to warm up. Not only warming their instruments, but the audience who were waiting in anticipation for another afternoon of swingin', dancin' and toe tappin' music. With the opening "Puttin' on the Ritz" to a first set finish of an incredible version of 'Shortnin' Bread" Kellie and the Roaders were in excellent form. The music flowed. "Honeysuckle Rose, Ain't Misbehavin' [Fats Wallers classics] Some Fats Domino favorites and one of Ella Fitzgerald's standards "Goodie Goodie" were given applause from the appreciative crowd, and what a great crowd!! There were too many highlights but we could not miss Kellie's standout vocals and gutsy slide trombone. How about Peter's outstanding guitar work plus some hot vocal. Derek amazes with those high- high trumpet notes. Toby keeps the group steady with solid drums shots and we applauded Justin's old- time slap bass. The dancers didn't leave much space on the floor!! Great to see! Nice work KELLIE & THE MUDDY ROADERS.

INGRID JAMES QUINTET:

On Sunday 18th November The Ingrid James Quintet opened their "Love and Other Fiascos" show with an evergreen "The Things We Did Last Summer". This opening set the scene for what was to come. Ingrid's beautiful voice, her wide range, her ability to sing difficult scattings and improvisations allows her to hit every note with pristine clarity and meaning for each lyric. 'I Fall in Love too Easily", "How Deep is the Ocean" were just some of the well known standards that were given the full James treatment. Her partner in voice Peter Uppman, (well known to the audience) complimented Ingrid with vocal duos and Peter's Trumpet and Flugelhorn playing was always of a high standard. A ballad "Midnight Sun" was followed by a great scattings duel of "Autumn Leaves" between Ingrid and Peter. The audience certainly enjoyed this version!! The steady constant beat provided by Joe Marchisella on Drums, the brilliance of John Reeves on Keyboards, and Andrew Shaw's Bass and bowed solo all contributed to a wonderful afternoon.

The afternoon finished early due to an unfortunate medical occurrence to one of our loved volunteers.

VALE PHIL MORRIS - GUEST TRUMPETER WITH 'CLARENCE JAZZ MEN' - WHO WERE SO POPULAR AT THE CALOUNDRA POWER BOAT CLUB GIG 16 SEPTEMBER 2018.

SAD NEWS FROM UK YESTERDAY WHEN AN EMAIL ARRIVED TO ADVISE THAT FOLLOWING THEIR RECENT VISIT TO FAMILY IN AUSTRALIA (CALOUNDRA, QLD) PHIL, ROBYN AND NAOMI RETURNED TO UK WHERE HE UNDERWENT SOME TESTS AND LATER ADMITTED TO HOSPITAL - HE PASSED AWAY SATURDAY MORNING 24TH NOVEMBER – a very sad loss to Jazz – In a tribute from Pietro (Clarence Jazz Men band leader, Casino) he said that the most enjoyable gig he had ever done with Phil (a long- time friend) was the recent show at Caloundra for Sunshine Coast Jazz Club where they all really enjoyed themselves and this would have been Phil's last show! I have sent heartfelt sympathy to Robyn and Naomi from Management Committee and Club Members via Pietro. Robyn also said in her email, how much he had enjoyed playing that day. Julie
