A NOTE FROM VP RED SOCKS

May the music with in you grace your world.

Congrats to long-time members Graeme, and Karen Buchanan who have started a new Jazz scene – “Jazz and Blues Collective” at the Old Sole Bar in Ocean St, Maroochydore. Their inaugural show was reported to be a full house last Sunday 13th January, so if you feel your need for an extra “jazz fix” on the second Sunday of each month, you may want to check it out – a much smaller venue with different style to our club. Congrats also to one of our 14 founding members, Richard Weston, appointed Front of House Manager for our club. He did a great job with the record crowd of 250 for Galapagos Duck on 20th -Julie, our President, is now in charge of booking all bands from 2019 and she has a ‘top of the tree’ line-up booked to suit our upmarket venue – The Pelicans Room, Caloundra Power Boat Club – you have seen the ‘sold out’ sign for January and Galapagos Duck so make sure you book early for the great coming gigs, so that you don’t miss out. Popular Me & My Chauffeur are next - 17 February

HAPPY SNAPS DECEMBER - PUTTIN' ON THE RITZ!!

PRESIDENT JULIE'S REVIEW

New Year Greetings to all – following the fabulous Caxton Street Jazz Band for our Xmas party – and so good to have Tom Nicolson (trombone/Banjo/Vocal s) back in fine form and having kicked the year off with a huge bang with the masters - GALAPAGOS DUCK - what a day it was with a record crowd and totally SOLD OUT in advance- get ready for a fabulous lineup for the coming months - one that you probably never imagined would come to the Sunshine Coast - make sure that you book early to avoid disappointment.

17 February brings – by popular request – "Me and My Chauffer" and John Murray – their special guest – with lots of fun Jazz, and as a treat, a Valentine's Day theme, so don't miss out - BOOK NOW!

March will see a complete change – and a big treat with Pete Kelly's 10 piece Interstate Swing Band – put those dancing shoes on and DRESS GREEN (this is St Paddy's day) to enjoy Sinatra & Buble' and more -then check out the Gig Guide for more great JAZZ – In April, we are proud to be bringing you the world acclaimed drummer Mario Bahia as guest artist with that wonderful Brazilian/Portuguese jazz from "A View from Madeleine's Couch"

As our Club year ended 31 December, annual Membership fees are due & to assist the new staff PLEASE show Club Membership cards at door.

We really do appreciate your support in joining as members – and your attendance throughout the year. A BIG THANK YOU – because of this continued support, we have been able to book some fabulous bands with lots of variety.

My thanks to Bernie Bennett (who has resigned as Treasurer), for his good work -replaced by Frannie Kosenko– his Assistant Treasurer, who has been 'holding the fort' & Glennis who filled in for bookings/FOH- I am now delighted to welcome RICHARD WESTON, Foundation Member, who will take over the job of Front of House Manager & Bookings , I am confident he will be great. Warmest Wishes Julie

BRIAN FANE'S REVIEW

What more can be said or written about the legendary CAXTON STREET JAZZ BAND. For more than 40 years the CSJB have been entertaining audiences all over Australia and overseas. Trad, Dixie, Swing all played with consummate professionalism. Their versatility on different instruments, including banjo and washboards give an extra dimension for listeners and dancers to enjoy. Paul's solos on Clarinet and tenor sax, John's soaring trumpet notes, Tom's gutsy trombone all blend into glorious jazz. Then we have Bernice's solid keyboards and inspired vocals supported by Andrew's bass (bowed and slapped) The music flowed non- stop - the audience gave great applause and the dancers shook the floor. Do you need anything more for an afternoon fun? NO!! - CAXTON STREET JAZZ BAND we loves you'se !! Brian Fane SCJC Life Member

GALAPAGOS DUCK REVIEW-SUNDAY 20TH JANUARY

The well -known and respected 'GALAPAGOS DUCK' flew into the Caloundra Power Boat Club on Sunday 20th January and blew up a storm for 250 people in attendance. From the opening "That's a Plenty" to the finale, THE DUCK entertained the crowd with many Jazz stanard's, including Dave Brubeck's,"Rondo a la Turk"and Chick Corea's "Spain". Rodney [not only a great drummer) sang a classic ballad "My Foolish Heart", Richelle amazed us with the Steel Drum as well as strong Sax and flute solos. Will on keyboards played a lovely trio of the great Oscar Peterson melodies. John's bass and guitar solos continue to add a further dimension to the music each time he plays and Willi on Saxes and percussion leads with humour and expertise. Too many great tunes to mention in a review, except to say GAPAGOS DUCK you are THE BEST!!! THANK YOU, THANK YOU for a wonderful afternoon of the best of jazz.
