- President's Report -

Greetings jazz enthusiasts. We are already half way through our year of jazz concerts, but there is much more to come nonetheless. Your Club has great artists lined up for the remainder of the year for your enjoyment. So plan ahead and support live music.

A Club webpage is under construction and will be online soon. There you will be able to peruse upcoming events and reports on past, and to which you can refer your friends for concert information. The Club's Facebook page has been updated and will regularly report club functions. At Facebook search for Sunshine Coast Jazz Club Inc.

Welcome to our new members. Thanks for giving your support to live jazz on the Coast.

Vice-President's Report

What great shows we have just had. Between the Jazz Ensemble & then The Craig Martin Swing Band playing The Beatles Swing. How good does it get?

This is how good it gets, The Caxton Street Band doing a Tribute to Acker Bilk music. Definitely a show not to be missed.

I am very pleased to see how people are liking the Programming they are getting at each meeting.

We are now regularly getting new members, and are appreciative of not only our existing Volunteers, but also other new members wanting to be involved.

Between Dell at the front desk, Carlyn doing the bookings, Brian doing the Radio Show, Ted getting our details out to the Libraries /Caloundra Surf Club & the Arts Centre, also the Pink Ladies who do a wonderful job & also helped us out at the Craig Martin Show at the front door. Plus another big job being done by Robyn with our Newsletter /our Web Page & our Facebook up & running.....To you all A VERY BIG THANK YOU.

Let's all continue to keep up the good work so our Club will be better for all our members.

Bill Connor
Vice President.

P.S. If you have any suggestions re better ways to do things or other ways we can improve. I am all ears.

A QUICK WORD FROM THE MAN - RED SOCKS

New Groove Jazz Ensemble Sat 23rd May, 2015

The New Groove Swings at Lake Kawana, Sportsman's Pde, Bokarina, says it all as we all know, those that were there. The band requested that dancing would be in front of the band, so we set up a decent area for dancing, as per the photos.

A few of the many arrangements -

The first number is usually the last - 'When the Saints go Marching In', 'American Patrol', vocals Peter, 'When you're Smiling', 'Come Fly with Me', he done, it well. Qantas would give it 100 out of 100. 'Moonlight Serenade', then Joe's turn,

'Mack the Knife', 'Don't Get Around Much Anymore'. Then Trina, P'ick Yourself Up', 'Black Coffee'. Not easy but Trina gave it a plenty. Three more, then Trina and Ken sang 'I Won't Dance', but the mob did!

Interval, which we needed. Nice timing, the band's pizzas arrived nice & hot. We provided coffee or tea.

Well, the second set - 'Sing, sing, sing' 1 & 2. Did young and old dancers dig it. Trina vocals, 'Straighten Up and Fly Right'. A few more then Trina 'Summertime'. We gave her a standing ovation. Don't get any better. After a few more, Trina, 'A-Tisket A-Tasket' "stopped the dancers".

A small break before the last set. 'In the Mood', 'Golden Wedding', 'Waltzing Matilda'. 5 more then 'Minnie the Moocher' final. But we all had other ideas. Encore, encore, encore. Well as we all know Trina, 'That Old Black Magic', 'It's Alright With Me'. We loved them. They returned volumes

The New Groove Jazz Ensemble will be back on the 3rd October, 2015 in the old hall behind Kawana Library. We will be 'Putting on the Ritz' as Peter said. We are looking forward to this - dress ups and a lot of fun. There will be prizes for Best Dressed - 1st, 2nd, 3rd and runners up - bottles of bubbly! Ladies time to pull out the heavy black lace stockings + whatever. Good luck and fun for all!

Sad News

Yvonne Olson and Brian, our dancers, have passed away. We wish the family our condolences. They were amongst our oldest members. We will miss you both very much.

THE MAL WOOD QUINTET Sunday 26th April

The Quintet opened with “I Can't Give you anything but Love” and this opening set the standard for the afternoon. With talented musicians , Paul Williams, Steve Francis, Stu Barry , Mal and the knockout surprise guest Lachie Mitchell on guitar and vocals could you expect anything better. These guys are versatile. Mal, vocals and soaring trumpet solos, Stu Barry on bass quietly setting the beat with Steve on drums and the impeccable sounds of tenor saxophone and clarinet from Paul. Music does not get better. To hear Lachie accompany his guitar with similar vocals and then sing in a perfect falsetto voice had the audience applauding for more.

The afternoon went too quickly. Mal never stops either playing, singing, entertaining the audience with stories [mostly made up] and giving his musicians plenty of time to show their own talent. Too many highlights during the performance to mention except to say Thanks guys!!

Mal and the Quintet are certainly a must for a future return.

And then there was the Nun and the Cab Driver

A cabbie picks up a nun. She gets into the cab and notices that the VERY handsome driver won't stop staring at her. She asks him why he is staring, as if he had never seen a nun before.

He replies "I have a question to ask you but I don't want to offend you".

"When you're as old as I am and have been a nun as long as I have, you get a chance to see and hear just about everything, so I am sure there is nothing you could say or ask that I would find too offensive", she replied.

"Well", said the cabbie, "I've always had a fantasy to have a nun kiss me."

She responds, "Let's see what we can do about that."

"1st you have to be single and 2nd, you must be catholic."

The cab driver got very excited and says, "Yes, I am both single and catholic."

"Ok" the nun says, "pull into the next alley."

The nun fulfils the young man's fantasy with a kiss that would make a hooker blush.

But when they get back underway, he suddenly starts crying.

"My dear child", said the nun, "why are you crying?"

"Forgive me" he asks, "for I have sinned. I lied to you and must tell you that I am married and I'm Jewish."

The nun is very cool and said "That's okay. My name is Kevin and I'm on my way to the gay mardigras!"

Thanks to Peninsula Jazz Club for sharing this one.
