- President's Report -

Greetings to all the treasured members and friends of the Sunshine Coast Jazz Club!

Each and every one of you is so important to us because you are the Jazz Club and when you attend any of our events, even if it's only once a year, you are supporting the club and enabling it to continue. We couldn't do it without you, we appreciate you, and I would like to take this moment to personally thank you for your patronage.

Speaking of attending only one event, this is one event that you shouldn't miss. To celebrate our club and the fabulous music of Jazz, we are organising our very first ball. Yay. On Saturday, 6th August, the Jazz Club is proudly presenting the Midwinter Masquerade - A Costume Ball.

The Midwinter Masquerade will be a brilliant night, with outstanding dance music provided by The Calibre Cats, great food and terrific prizes. The catering will include delicious, ongoing finger food, canapés and small plates rather than a structured, sit down meal, so you will be free to eat when you please, mingle, and dance all night. As a consideration to our valued guests, we have decided to make all beverages BYO so that you can enjoy the drinks you like, at the price that you like to pay. Of course, glassware will be provided. It's going to be a fabulous, formal night of food, frolics, and dancing. Our glittering Masquerade Ball is truly going to be a night not to be missed.

What's that? What's the masquerade bit? Why, that's one of the best bits! This is your fantasy, your night to be anything you want. Wear a mask, wear a costume, dress up as anything you'd like to be for a night. Would you like to be a fairy queen, or a swashbuckling pirate, a character from a book or movie? Would you like to wear something nice but add an air of mystique with a mask? Go for it! Did I mention that there will be prizes for the best costumes? Well, there will be, so start thinking.

I have met many of you already, and I am thoroughly looking forward to seeing you again at the Masquerade and those whom I haven't yet had the pleasure of meeting, I will be absolutely delighted to greet you at the Ball.

Let's make the Sunshine Coast Jazz Club's inaugural Midwinter Ball a night to remember!

Donna Nagel

Vice-President's Report

2 Great Shows. The Andrews Sisters Tribute Show....A really great show / even had to sit people at the back / Everybody commented / had a good time.

Followed up by Mal Woods & his all new Jazz Musicians.

Now Sunday 3rd July the always popular Caxton Street Jazz Band.

NEXT SHOW STOP PRESS The CALIBRE CATS 8 Piece Group ALL YOU DANCERS do not miss.

Our thanks to our President Donna NagelThis is really her brain wave & it is shaping up as the EVENT of our year.

Please, anybody that can assist, please advise Jules & or Carlyn.

Once again, my thanks to everybody on our team, but also my thanks to all of our supporters.

Lets keep up the good shows for our Club. We may not be the biggest Jazz Club in Australia, but other clubs keep talking about us.

Bill Connor
Vice President.

Message from our Secretary

We've had a few new members in the last two months, and they are:

Rudi and Elizabeth Agerbeek, Ros Evans and Marshall Grey. We extend them a big welcome.

I enjoyed my stint on Sunshine FM 104.9 Community Radio, covering Tony Hennessey's "Sunday Jazz" programme, but he's back from his holiday and will resume his normal shows. I extend a big thank you to him for allowing me to step into his shoes for 5 weeks.

Of course, the Big Event that everybody's talking about is the upcoming Midwinter Masquerade Costume Swing Ball. Without Donna's vision and tenacity to arrange this at such short notice, it would never have got off the ground. This is a first for the Club and a definite highlight for our diaries.

I also want to thank Robyn Brown for managing to make sense of all our various scribbles and attachments and putting it all together into a vibrant, enjoyable newsletter.

A QUICK WORD FROM THE MAN - RED SOCKS

Hi in listening land, the photo is of some of our members at Merimbula jazz festival. It's as good as any festival starting 1983 on the hat the badge + more. All those years ago V.J.C organized buses and motels. It grew to where nearly 2000 jazzers dig it. The sox was not as old then and could party with all. This was the birth of the hat +++++++ Well that was some time back. That old rocking chair is now on the front porch. Well there you go...

August is looking good.

The Brisbane jazz club with Alan Western hosted the big band festival... I agree with the cat in the hat, John morrison + jacki cooper - I dips me lid china lid {to Alan Western] The photos are too dark but they packed the joint inc SCHOOL BANDS.....

2016 29th Newcastle jazz festival is the place to be. I can not be there this year. Sorry dear friends.

A long standing member Robyn Brown (Sassy Jazz) is presenting top jazz on the coast. t/no 0403 152 397 We need more jazz on the sunny coast to promote all that JAZZ+ BLUES. dips me lid

THE ANDREW SISTERS

On Mother's Day at the Currimundi Hotel Function Room we waited in anticipation for The Andrew Sisters .

The supporting Band led by Trumpet man Peter Upman gave an intro then marching on stage in full USA uniforms came the girls. Was it Maxine ,Patti and La Verne the original Sisters?? No ! We had our own Andrew Gals who wasted no time starting with The Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy. The crowd applauded and never stopped. Every song the girls sang we knew. All the favourites from the 40's and 50's made well known by the Andrew Sisters. "Beat Me Daddy, Roll out The Barrel, Don't Sit Under the Apple Tree "and many more. They just kept rolling out with continual applause.

The next set opened with Peter and the group belting out a bracket of Glenn Miller's old favourites. Peter sang a couple of songs including the Armstrong hit "What a Wonderful World", then the girls appeared in beautiful Ball Gowns for more great songs as a group and then each girl took a solo. As an added plus Jo gave a crowd jumpin' boogie solo. A short break then the girls reappeared in the USA Uniforms and took us along "Route 66" then a wonderful bracket of World War 2 songs. Songs made famous by the British Songbird VERA LYNN. I think there were a few tears shed during this bracket. Then the final "In the Mood" led to a great round of applause which encouraged the girls [I don't think they needed encouragement] and the band to finish a superb afternoon with the opening song as the encore " Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy".

To The Andrew Sisters and the Band
Thank You.

Thank You.

- NEWS -

A jazz trio is playing a gig at an upscale nightclub. They play a classic bebop tune at a fleet tempo with grace and ease. Then comes a Wayne Shorter composition filled with mysterious harmonies, poignant melodies and daring improvisations. Next they present a medley of lesser known Harold Arlen songs that only a connoisseur would recognize, again played with elegant styling and exquisite taste. The whole evening has been one dazzling performance after another. Though the trio is playing background music and not a formal concert, the audience can sense the musical display they are witnessing is of such a high caliber that the musicians should be allowed to perform as they please without interference.

Then a well-dressed middle-aged man approaches the bandstand and asks the pianist "Can you play Lara's Theme from Dr. Zhivago?" The pianist tells the man they are jazz musicians and that they usually don't take requests of that sort. The man reaches into his coat pocket and pulls out three one hundred dollar bills which he lays out on the piano. The pianist looks at the bass player and drummer and says "Lara's Theme in G."

They play the tune in the fashion of the original version, the pianist emulating the Balalaika textures with a delicate upper register tremolo. The song obviously does not present the same level of difficulty that the trio is accustomed to dealing with.

As the pianist plays, he absent-mindedly gazes at the soundboard of his ebony Steinway B and wonders about the grain in the wood. "How would the tonal characteristics be altered if the grain of the soundboard ran perpendicular to the strings rather than parallel", he silently asks himself.

The bass player amuses himself with an assortment of well-placed double-stops and harmonics. He day-dreams as he looks at the top of his mid-nineteenth century double bass made by French master, Paul Claudot, and wonders "How many times has the top been varnished, how did the varnish of past years differ from today's, how would the resonance properties be affected if there were no varnish at all?"

The drummer gazes down onto the single-ply, medium-weight head of his 1950's vintage black oyster pearl snare drum and thinks to himself: "One, two, three, one, two, three, one, two, three."
