'THE ROBYN BROWN LIBOR SMOLDAS QUARTET'

On Sunday 17th January Robyn and Libor, very ably supported by OJ Newcomb and Paul Hudson returned for another audience rewarding performance.

From the opening "East of the Sun" to the final "Tangerine", as expected the music was never less than superb. Robyn's voice blends musically with Libor's delicate chords along with OJ's steady bass line and Paul's always consistent and considerate drums.

Libor 's chords and solo lines are constant, blending and never leaving the melody too far away. An international star guitarist by far (visiting here from Prague). There were so many joyful moments during the afternoon, too many lovely songs to record . Anyone in the audience who was present at the previous concert would say " Bring the Quartet back again". We hope that can be accomplished.

More Adventures from " THE ROVING REPORTER "

Last Easter 2015, seemed a good time to visit New Zealand. After checking out Auckland and the neighbouring Islands including Waiheke Island where they hold their Easter Jazz Festival, I travelled down to visit friends in Tauranga, 3hrs Sth of Auckland, where they were holding their 53rd National Jazz Festival. This is a "gold coin donation" 2 day Out Door Festival, with 4 stages set up overlooking the beautiful waterfront. You take your chairs, lunch and "refreshments" and just sit and enjoy. There are plenty of restaurants, and good shopping all around the downtown area.

In the evenings in the Concert Halls, there are more Bands you can pay to go listen to. The mix of music throughout the festival ranges from Blues, to Classic Jazz, Swing, Folk, Funk, Big Band, and the 38th National Youth Jazz Competitions.

I bumped into Will Sargisson one day, so had a chat. The Galapagos Duck Band were playing one of the evening venues. On Easter Monday the theme changes to the New Orleans style, and you venture over to a small Village where the buildings resemble "The French Quarter" in New Orleans. There was a "Big Easy" outdoor stage, Preservation Hall, Lafayette Church, a number of street stalls, food outlets, and even a Fireworks display to end the festivities.

So a good time was had by all, and quite a different style of Jazz Festival.

Till next time, Keep Jazzin!!

Grandma's Apron

I don't think our kids know what an apron is.

The principal use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath, because she only had a few, it was easier to wash aprons than dresses and they used less material, but along with that, it served as a potholder for removing hot pans from the oven.

It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears...

From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks, and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven.

When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids.

And when the weather was cold grandma wrapped it around her arms.

Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove.

Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron.

From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables.

After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls.

In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees.

When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds.

When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron, and the men-folk knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that 'old-time apron' that served so many purposes.

REMEMBER:

Grandma used to set her hot baked apple pies on the window sill to cool.

Her granddaughters set theirs on the window sill to thaw.

They would go crazy now trying to figure out how many germs were on that apron.

I never caught anything from an apron...But Love.

Sun 3rd April

The Sunshine Coast Jazz Club Inc presents

Pugsley Buzzard

Pugsley's unique brand of piano driven boogie and blazing stride in conjunction with his huge mesmerizing voice makes the ladies sigh and grown men cry.

" Pugsley Buzzard is probably the finest purveyor of hoodoo since Cab Calloway first conjured the ghost of Smokey Joe up from the depths and one of the most dangerously alluring blues singers since Howlin' Wolf first rasped out Smokestack Lightning."

This will be a one-off solo performance with Pugsley playing an upright piano (sponsored by Nigel Bland 's piano warehouse 0428 302 853) . Latest CDs will be on sale.

There is none his equal. DON'T MISS IT!

WWII was a dark period & the Andrews Sisters brought laughter & happiness to many. They were very active in their patriotic duty - war time entertainment, volunteering their time, singing & dancing & signing autographs for the troops. They participated in a 8 week U.S.O. Tour & performed for thousands of service men. The

New Andrews Sisters Tribute are 3 sassy divas - Kelsey Giarola, Cherryn Lomas & Anita David backed by the accomplished & lively Boogie Beat Band. "Boogie Woogie" on the dance floor, reminisce with "Rum n Coca Cola" & "Don't Sit Under The Apple Tree" with anyone but the New Andrews Sisters Tribute.
